Weekly Newsletter

w/b SUNDAY FEBRUARY 27th, 2022
next Sunday before Lent

Dear Friends,

This coming Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent.

Our service will be at 10am on the day. As ever, we will provide opportunities for people to study and discuss (see further on), but inevitably the observation of Lent will be a personal one.

May God be with you in your journey through Lent to the cross and resurrection.

The Vicar

STUDY AND COMMUNITY EVENTS

World Day of Prayer Service

You are warmly invited to this service on Friday March 4 at 10.30 am at Christ Church Epsom Common.

This service has been arranged by the WDP Committee for England, Wales and Northern Ireland. It will be celebrated on the same day over the world. The theme for the service is based on God's promise, found in the book of Jeremiah: "I Know the Plans I Have for you." The focus on freedom, forgiveness, justice and hope is so relevant in our world today.

Please join us for refreshments after the service.

SATURDAY 5 MARCH 2 PM

THE BRATHWAITE MEMORIAL – A PERSONAL REFLECTION

Peter Brathwaite, acclaimed baritone, based in the UK but performing internationally, also writes and presents for BBC Radio 3 and is working with Getty Publications on his first book. His solo exhibition ‘Visible Skin: Rediscovering the Renaissance through Black Portraiture’ is running on King’s College London’s Strand Campus until February 2022. Peter was a chorister at St Ann’s Church in Manchester, received a music bursary to Bury Grammar School, and studied Philosophy and Fine Art at Newcastle University before receiving a scholarship at the Royal College of Music.

Among the memorials at St Martin’s is one that commemorates John Brathwaite, who was born in Barbados in 1722 and died on 21 September 1800. He is buried in a vault beneath the church. John Brathwaite owned four plantations in Barbados, growing sugar cane using enslaved labour. He also served in London for 15 years as colonial agent for Barbados – a role in which he represented to Parliament the interests of the Barbadian plantation owners, merchants and traders. In 1788 he argued to Parliament for the continuation of the slave trade, in opposition to those – such as William Wilberforce MP – who were campaigning for its abolition.

John Brathwaite lived in London, but in the final years of his life lived in Epsom with his unmarried niece Mary Ashley. She was one of the beneficiaries and executors of his will and commissioned the memorial. After his death, until she died in 1845, she continued to live in their house, Ashley House, which in turn led to the naming of Ashley Road and the Ashley Centre.

Peter Brathwaite is a descendant of John Brathwaite's nephew Miles. Peter's 4x great grandmother Margaret Brathwaite was born in Barbados in 1790, the illegitimate daughter of Miles, a prominent white enslaver, and an unknown enslaved African mother. Her husband, Peter's 4x great grandfather Addo Brathwaite, was the property of John Brathwaite. Peter's talk will be a personal reflection on what enslavement has meant to him and his family.

Background Information

This talk is an opportunity to listen to someone who has a personal connection with the memorial. It is part of ongoing reflection being undertaken by the PCC in the light of guidance offered by the Church Fabric Commission in Contested Heritage in Cathedrals and Churches.

It is hoped that such reflection will help the church family, and those who visit us, to engage sensitively with the consequences of past enslavement and the repercussions still being experienced today. Also, to consider how we provide context to such memorials in our church; how to commemorate the names of those enslaved, how we formally lament the atrocities of past and modern slavery, and how we reach out to those who previously felt unwelcome in our church because of the existence of such memorials.

In connection with this reflection, the PCC has agreed to co-fund, with the diocese, a research project to tell us more about the life of John Brathwaite and the local context of the time, in Epsom; local views, the links with the abolitionist movement, what MPs said, so that we know a more holistic story that the monument is revealing to us.

PCC Governor vacancy – Volunteer role

There is a vacancy for a PCC appointed Foundation Governor at St Martin's Church of England Voluntary Aided Schools, Epsom. Foundation Governors in a Church school play a vital role in ensuring that the Christian character and ethos of the school is promoted and maintained.

As well as commitment to seeking to support the maintenance of the Christian ethos, St Martin's is hoping to recruit an individual with background which would support governor challenge and support related to change management. Applications are welcome from individuals who are willing to engage in relevant training to support their own development.

Being a Governor is really worthwhile and rewarding, and if you are interested in this role, please do get in touch with:

MISSION FOR THE MONTH - February

HOME MISSION

Epsom and Ewell Foodbank - opened in 2012 and fed more than 2,600 in 2017 and the need has been escalating ever since. Especially in the last 2 years. They are also working to stop hunger in our area working together with the Community, Churches, Agencies, Businesses and Schools

The Street Pastors - The Church in action on the street. Caring-Listening-Helping. They are volunteers from local Churches, who care about their Communities with Practical and Spiritual Patrols.

Please take a look at the Missions Board at the back of church and hold them in your Prayers

ECO CHURCH

Recycling in Epsom

There is a recycling box in the welcome area at the Methodist Church in Ashley Road. They recycle the following and support the linked charities:-

- Used stamps (RNIB)
- Gently used bras ('Smalls for All' supporting vulnerable women)
- Spectacles – without the cases, please - (sent to developing countries)
- Crisp packets (Air Ambulance)
- Batteries, empty tablet blister packets (recycled so they are not sent to landfill)
- Clean foil
- Toothbrushes and empty toothbrush tubes

The Co-op take plastic bags.

Boots and Leightons take contact lens foil and contact lenses

Boots and Superdrug Makeup compacts and palettes, mascara, lip products, plastic make-up tubes and other makeup packaging.

Ryman Pens and other writing equipment and printer cartridges

Dyas and Sainsbury's Water filters

In due course St Martin's could collect something for recycling too. There are more 'eco' links on the church website, under 'Church Life' and 'Eco Church'

- <https://www.stmartinsepsom.org/church-life/> .

A very useful local group is Sustainable Epsom and Ewell - <https://www.sustainableepsomewell.co.uk> - who have information on many things (look under 'themes') including some more recycling options around Epsom. Do have a look - and then reduce, re-use, and RECYCLE

Message for Helen Williams:

" I imagine many of you will have chosen your fast or actions for Lent. If you haven't yet and are searching for inspiration, here are some ideas related to taking care of our single home - God's creation, Earth. Perhaps you are ready to up your game, after Adrian's recent notices about recycling. Choose something which you feel is a fitting challenge or observance for you, which might be something new, or a change in scale of what you already do.

- petrol - reduce your car use, take public transport more, go without the car for a day or two extra a week, or throughout Lent
- energy - use appliances as efficiently as you can (full, at off-peak times)
- food
  - increase the proportion of locally produced/seasonal food you eat (Surrey(!), or SE England, or UK?)
  - only buy FairTrade options
  - increase the number of vegetarian or vegan meals you eat (plenty of good recipes on the BBC website)
- plastic-waste fast - avoid single-use plastic. Try shopping at a refill/zero-waste shop (now in Ewell and Ashtead)

Do have a look on the Church eco page for more information, or speak to me/e-mail me. I'm happy to chat about how hard some of these things can be - perhaps we can support each other in our endeavours!
