SUNDAY 30th October 2022 – All Saints Day

THE VICAR WRITES...

What makes a saint? A decision of the Church in the future, that gives you a post-humous title of St? To get that, you must have two miracles attributed to you. Or is it simply a human who shows a lot of patience?

In Biblical terms, a saint is simply one who is a disciple of Christ.

And whilst All Saints is a time to remember all those 'stand out' Christians through the centuries, it's also a time to remember the millions of forgotten Christians whose lives were lived following the teachings of Jesus and who made a difference in the time and place they lived their earthly lives.

The monthly prayer meeting held to pray for St. Martin's school. In the Headley between 8-9pm. All are welcome. Please contact Naomi Ahronson for further details on 07773 346604 or email naomiahronson@gmail.com.

Sunday Coffee

I am about to compile the Sunday Coffee rota and am hoping to find some more volunteers to come on the list. At the moment it means doing it every 7 weeks but the more people on the list makes it much easier. If you would be happy to help contact me either on a Sunday morning, at maureensuatt@virginmedia.com or on 01372 723675.

6.30pm Service of Memorial and Thanksgiving

The annual Memorial and Thanksgiving Service remembering those who have died will be on Sunday 6th November at 6.30pm.

If you would like your loved one remembered, with their name read aloud at the service, please add it to the list at the back of church.

REMEMBRANCETIDE – Sunday 13th November

On the way back to normal, this year's Remembrance Sunday Service on November 13th will have a traditional parade by Scouts, ATC cadets and CCF cadets from Epsom College.

Among the many other traditions the pandemic prevented us from observing was the centenary of the laying of the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Westminster Abbey. Millions of people have visited the tomb since then and everyone who enters the Abbey shares in the remembrance.

The Remembrance Sunday commemorations have always included special tributes from the Royal Family. Our late Queen, as Princess Elizabeth, laid her wedding bouquet at the tomb and for the centenary she returned to the Abbey to place a replica of that bouquet. In mourning and masked she was alone except for the Dean of Westminster, her equerry and a lone piper.

To honour the centenary His Majesty the King, as Prince of Wales, had placed a replica of the wreath laid on the coffin by his great grandfather King George V. This first wreath was of red roses and bay leaves because the now traditional Flanders poppies had yet to be adopted as a symbol.

With regret for loss of maintained knowledge of British history, I felt we could make up for this a bit this year and have the Remembrance Sunday decoration of St Martin's more telling. In this, we shall have an interpretation of the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at the font, under a "We Will Remember Them" theme for the two world wars and the many subsequent conflicts.

The Westminster Abbey website has a well illustrated history of the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and is worth a visit.

Second Thoughts - Sunday, 13th November at 6.30 pm

Jonathan Lees

*'The Bible says we will always have the poor –
Does that mean we shouldn't do anything about them?'*

We will explore what should our response be to the poor in our society? As Christians should that be different to others? Is it things that we do and support that keep people in poverty? How do we challenge the status quo? Are we ingrained in patterns of behaviour that mean we cannot see their impact? Jonathan writes: 'For ten years I ran Generation Church, stepping down in 2020, and in 2012 we launched the foodbank with a lot of support. This has sadly grown and grown. Our mission is now to close the foodbank but to do that we have to explore the roots of poverty, how we live our lives, how we make decisions and how can we lift people out of poverty. These are the areas that we are grappling with on a day today basis as we try to turn the tide.

Refreshments will be available beforehand.

Saturday 19th November at 4.30pm St Martin's

Singers of Opera Holloway return with a programme of famous operatic favourites. The concert will be a musical feast, featuring operatic solos and ensembles sung by local soprano – Callie Gaston, tenor – William Branston and baritone – Sam Oram. Since Opera Holloway last visited, their star singers have made their international debuts and are in demand in both the UK and overseas. The trio will perform some of opera's greatest arias, duets and trios from Faust, La Bohème, Il Barbiere di Siviglia, Don Giovanni and more.

Christmas Cards – On sale now

It is time to start thinking about Christmas! I have set up my display of Christmas cards, candles and Advent Calendars. Please buy now while I have good stocks. Once I have sold out of a particular design, I may not be able to get any more. I will also have a table at the Christmas Fair with all my remaining stock for you to buy.

Everything will be on sale between now and Christmas especially in case you need that “extra” pack of cards!

Payment may be made in a variety of ways:

- Cheque: made payable to “The PCC of the Ecclesiastical Parish of Epsom” (please either hand in to the office or place in the wall safe in church)
- Donation Station: contactless payments – please use the “Cards” button
- Cash: via the wall safe in church.

Every packet sold helps the church. Thank you for your custom.

CHRISTMAS FAIR – Saturday 26th November

The St Martin's Christmas Fair is back!! Please save the date in your diaries – Saturday 26 November from 11.00 am – 2.00 pm. We now need your help to ensure that the Fair is the best one yet. It is time to look out those items that you have been going to donate for ages, buy those extra bars of chocolate, that extra bottle of wine etc. There are a couple of boxes at the back of church for your kind donations.

We need the following:

Chocolate – individual bars, small boxes etc.

Books, CDs and DVDs

Boxed games and Jigsaws (complete if possible!)

Jewellery, Toiletries (new, gift sets, perfumes etc.)

Preserves, Bottles of wine

We will also be asking for cakes nearer the time!

(We DO NOT want bric a brac or gifts as we have no room for these stalls this year and nowhere to store such items).

We need volunteers to help out the day before (Friday 25th November) – to help us set up and also on the day itself – either to help run a stall, provide cover for a stall holder for a short time or to help clear up at the end of the Fair. If anyone is able to help out please contact one of the Events Team with your offers.

Lastly we have a poster that will begin appearing all over the place! If anyone is happy to take a poster and display it in their window we would be very grateful. There will be a pile of posters available from next week.

Thank you very much from the Events Team Alyson Aronson, Cathy Morris, Mary Holloway-Neville and Nancy Bluett.

MISSION ABROAD

Wheels for the World

This local Christian disability charity is part of the Christian Charity 'Through the Roof.' It is a programme focused on those who have mobility challenges by rescuing old wheelchairs and mobility aids destined for land fill, which are then refurbished in a prison workshop. The wheelchairs are distributed to developing countries such as Nigeria, Kenya or Uganda with physiotherapist and occupational therapy support. Each recipient receives a Bible in their own language.

Wheels for the World demonstrates the love of God in practical ways.
