WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

SUNDAY 27th NOVEMBER 2022 – ADVENT SUNDAY

THE VICAR WRITES...

Advent Sunday is upon us. I hope many of us will be able to participate in 9.30am, 10am and/or 6.30 worship on Sunday – for 10am and 6.30pm either in person or via the internet. Advent means ‘coming/arriving’. Obviously Christmas is coming, will arrive, but about what else might we be expectant? I suggest new hope – our world is in desperate need of hope – we can say ‘we will find that in the Christ-child’ but one reflection for advent might be ‘how can I be a bringer of hope to others?’

Martyn Holloway-Neville

'Solidarity – the start of the fall of the Iron Curtain.'

Solidarity (in its native Polish, Solidarność) was formed in 1980 as a trade union for the shipyard workers of Gdansk. It became a shining light behind the Iron Curtain of the Cold War and started its demise. Martyn planned to head for Gdansk in late July 2020 for the European Scout Jamboree but that was called-off because of the pandemic. He will share with you a remarkable tale of danger, spirit and hope.

I have been a member of this congregation for many years, and therefore do not need to say any more on that front! In the Scouting world, my trip to Poland will be my fourth international adventure – following excursions to Essex (it still counts!), Sweden and Iceland in years gone by.

The AMECA Trust

19th November 2022

Dear Nick and Congregation members,

On behalf of the Directors of AMECA, I am writing to thank you for the wonderful cheque for £500 from your Mission Giving Fund. We are so grateful for the ongoing support from the church and the Mission Committee.

You all will have been updated on events fairly recently when I was in the UK; I returned to Malawi near the end of August and I think it is fair to say that we have had the most challenging time out here since then. Most of you will be aware that Belinda Impey was out here in Malawi for a couple of months; she was joined by Laurence in November and it was great having them around. I am sure Belinda will be talking to you about her adventures over here.

Malawi has gone through a couple of devaluations of the Kwacha and goods have increased in price enormously; I am not clear how some of the Malawian can even afford to eat. Since January, we have suffered with long power outages every day for around 8 hours and to cap it all, we have huge shortages of fuel, first diesel and now petrol. To give you some idea, yesterday we waited only 10 minutes in a queue after a tip off from a friend and we were ecstatic to fill the car up!! The petrol crisis has had a huge impact on our ability to get things done as you just can't risk going anyway except local as you don't know when you will get fuel again. All a bit tiresome, to say the least.

So, as the year comes to an end, we reflect on the continuing success of our student scholarships, the almost completed 2-year mentorship programme for the midwives and the successful completion and opening of a new High Dependency Unit at Holy Family Mission Hospital in Phalombe. I do hope that you received our fairly recent newsletter but ask Nick if you didn't.

Thank you once again for your fantastic support and encouragement, it means so very much to me.

With kindest regards and God Bless you all.

Ruthie Markus
CEO & Founder, The AMECA Trust.
