WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

SUNDAY 22nd JANUARY 2023

EPIPHANY 3

Holocaust Memorial Sunday

Holocaust Memorial Day is commemorated each year on 27th January, the day in 1945 when Soviet forces liberated the Auschwitz-Birkenau Nazi death camp. The Church of England typically marks the date on the following Sunday - which, this year, is also the festival of Candlemas.

As such, St Martin's will instead mark the occasion at Morning Praise. The 10am service will be themed around commemoration, with a floral tribute by the War Memorial and elements of the service following suit. This year's theme for the event is Ordinary People, so the service will include some participative elements.

We are grateful to those who have already offered their help. More offers of help welcome from anyone who can give a little of their time. Refreshments will be served.

The plan is to leave any items that potentially can be reused or recycled in an area next to the War Memorial. On Sunday 29th anyone is welcome to take anything away that they can make use of. On Monday 30th there will be a skip outside Church House for remaining items from both the gallery and from a recent major sort out of the Office.

Deanery Choirs' Choral Evensong: Sunday 29th January 5.00pm Epsom College Chapel.

The Epiphany Carol service replaced our usual 3rd Sunday Choral Evensong last week. However, at the end of this month there's a special Choral Evensong being sung by combined choirs from the Deanery including our own. Do come and support this joint service which includes Stanford's setting of the Canticles in Bb and Balfour Gardiner's glorious 'Evening Hymn'. Rev Canon Andrew Havigland is leading the service.

Redundant Furniture

As part of the current project to declutter St Martin's Church, the PCC have been considering whether to dispose of some items of redundant furniture that are no longer used.

The items of furniture that are under consideration are:

1. Four pew responds, that are currently stored by the north door and in the south transept,
2. A small oak table
3. A small prayer desk,
4. A small bookcase
5. 2 red chairs
6. Larger Prayer desk
7. The two medium sized hymn boards that were in front of the Georgian pews,
8. The two large hymn boards that were hung either side of the rood screen.
9. Three small hymn boards
10. A small wooden plaque to a Muriel Harter,
11. A candle stand for tea lights.

All of these items, with the exception of items 1 and 5 are stored in the space behind the choir stalls on the south side of the chancel.

If you would like to know more about our plans for these pieces of furniture, please do not hesitate to speak to the Churchwardens in the first instance. As we need formal permission from the Diocese to dispose of these items, the PCC will be asked to formally resolve to petition for a faculty to do so at their next meeting on the 8th March.

MISSION OF THE MONTH – JANUARY

HOME MISSION - Epsom and Ewell Foodbank

It opened in 2012 and fed more than 2,600 in 2017 and the need has been escalating ever since. Especially in the last 2 years.

They are also working to stop hunger in our area working together with the community, Churches, agencies, businesses and schools.

They have also recently opened a Hub in Epsom for more communication and to reach particular needs.

ABROAD MISSION - The Leprosy Mission

Leprosy is still common in countries where poverty is rife and can lead to isolation and rejection from families and communities, despite being entirely curable. There are ¼ million new cases each year.

Treatment is vital to prevent disabilities that have devastating effects.

The Mission works to defeat Leprosy and transform lives.

Please Pray for them and the Foodbank and take a look at the Display Boards at the back of Church.

Thank you.
