WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

SUNDAY 5th FEBRUARY 2023

Sunday begins the countdown to Lent, and the readings invite us to consider some of the themes coming up. The OT reading this week, from Isaiah, challenges the Israelites in exile, to examine their ritualistic, inward, worship and consider how it stands up against their behaviour towards each other.

We have embarked on a diocesan supported project to develop a growth plan for the next 5 years. Crucial to that will be to examine our worship in the light of our behaviours, and ask ourselves if our Church 'stands up' to the challenge of growth in spirit and numbers. Sarah, one of our Churchwardens, will tell us more at the 10am service.

Redundant Furniture and decluttering the Church

Last Saturday, with the help of a team of volunteers from the congregation, we managed to clear the accumulated rubbish and other odds and ends from the gallery in Church, and on Monday morning, everything that we had cleared was taken away in a skip.

So many thanks to everyone who participated in any way, including those of you had took away individual items on Sunday; it all helped to achieve the result.

The next stage of the decluttering project is to rationalise the redundant furniture in the church and dispose of or repurpose those items that we no longer need.

On the 08 March, the PCC will formally consider the list of the items they wish to dispose of; in advance of the PCC meeting, we have reviewed the list and have removed from it the wooden plaque to Muriel Harter; - that will now stay.

However, we have added to the list a second candle stand for tea lights, (identical to the first one) and two medium sized prayer desks.

The revised items of furniture that are under consideration are:

1. Four pew responds, that are currently stored by the north door and in the south transept,
2. A small oak table
3. A small prayer desk,
4. A small bookcase
5. 2 red chairs
6. Larger Prayer desk

7. The two medium sized hymn boards that were in front of the Georgian pews,
8. The two large hymn boards that were hung either side of the rood screen.
9. Three small hymn boards
10. Two medium sized prayer desks
11. Two candle stands for tea lights.

All these items, except for items 1 and 5, are stored in the space behind the choir stalls on the south side of the chancel.

If you would like to know more about our plans for these pieces of furniture, please do not hesitate to speak to the Churchwardens in the first instance.

As we need formal permission from the Diocese to dispose of these items, the PCC will be asked to formally resolve to petition for permission to do so at the meeting on the 08 March.

Chorister Valediction at St Paul's Cathedral Evensong

We're delighted to share the news that one of our choir members, Dara, has completed his time as a treble chorister at St Paul's.

The valediction will be marked at the Cathedral Evensong on 5th February. Anyone who would like to attend is welcome to join us at this special service. To be seated in the quire by 2.45pm.

Thanks to everyone for the kind support and continuous encouragement given to Dara in his development as a church musician.

Volunteers needed please - – Communion at the Beaumont

We are still very short of people to take communion to the housebound. It is a wonderful privilege to be able to share this with them. It brings great joy. If you feel you would like to join our small team can you please speak to the Vicar about it, via the Church office.

Please think of anyone you might approach too.

LENT 2023

A leaflet containing details of services and activities will be e-mailed to everyone, and some paper copies available in Church.

New Radio 3 Programme from Peter Brathwaite: Rebel Sounds - Musical Resistance in Barbados

Opera singer, Peter Brathwaite, who gave a talk at St Martin's about his personal connection to our Brathwaite Memorial, visited Barbados last year where he recorded this fascinating programme on the music of Barbados. From plantation dances to Christian hymns and the discovery of some remarkable pro-enslavement propaganda songs, Peter talks to Barbadian historians and musicians to build up a picture of what the enslaved people's musical lives might have been. He also discusses the book John Brathwaite wrote about the management and treatment of enslaved people, and his contact with William Wilberforce. The programme is available on BBC Sounds: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b006tnwp>

MISSION OF THE MONTH - FEBRUARY

HOME MISSION - Epsom and Ewell Foodbank - PHAB

PHAB inspires and supports disabled and non-disabled children, young people and adults to make more of life together. PHAB reduces social isolation and creates opportunities towards that goal such as PHAB clubs in schools, holiday projects and many other activities in the community. These activities give many more disabled people regular social activities and friendship and widening the horizons of non-disabled and disabled alike.

ABROAD MISSION - The Leprosy Mission

Leprosy is still common in countries where poverty is rife and can lead to isolation and rejection from families and communities, despite being entirely curable.

There are ¼ million new cases each year. Treatment is vital to prevent disabilities that have devastating effects. The Mission works to defeat Leprosy and transform lives. Please Pray for them and the Foodbank and take a look at the Display Boards at the back of Church. Thank you.

RALPH VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Ashtead Choral Society looks forward to their next concert on Saturday 25th February at 7.30pm at St Martin's.

To celebrate the 150th anniversary of Vaughan Williams' birth, the concert features three of his best-loved works.

A Sea Symphony is set to the powerful and haunting poems of Walt Whitman. Orchestra, soloists and chorus combine throughout to evoke the dramatic and changing moods of the sea, and the voyages of ships under sail with their brave souls on board.

The Lark Ascending, performed by solo violinist Christian Halstead,

Five Mystical Songs for baritone solo and piano, complete the evening's programme.

We are pleased to welcome back Kent Sinfonia and soloists Eleanor Pennell-Briggs (soprano), Philip Tebb (baritone) and Stephen Ridge (piano).

The concert will be conducted by Musical Director Andrew Storey.

Tickets are £18 (half price for under 25s) available from:

<https://www.ticketsource.co.uk/ashteadchoralsociety>

Our final concert of the season will be on Saturday 13th May, again in St Martin's Church, with performances of Carmina Burana by Carl Orff and The Armed Man by Karl Jenkins.
