WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

SUNDAY 9th July 2023

TRINITY 5

Thank you for your prayers, cards, gifts and good wishes following my ordination at Guildford Cathedral last Sunday – and for the delicious cake we shared after our evening service. It was a joyous day and especially uplifting for me to see so many friends from St Martin's at the Cathedral. I'm sharing here these verses from Psalm 3 as they helped me a great deal during my journey to ordination:

*But you, Lord, are a shield about me;
you are my glory, and the lifter up of my head.
When I cry aloud to the Lord,
he will answer me from his holy hill;
I lie down and sleep and rise again,
because the Lord sustains me.*

Revd Judith

Second Thoughts

Second Thoughts scheduled for Sunday 9th July at 6.30pm will be a reflection on 'Silence and Prayer' in the service of Compline. Compline is, in itself, a quiet reflective service and is a wonderful context for some thoughts on silence. There will be an opportunity for some silence during the evening.

A SERIES ON THE SACRAMENTS

Over the summer, we will think about the two main sacraments of the Church – Holy Communion and Baptism – as well as those of reconciliation (confession), anointing, ordination and confirmation and marriage.

As well as Sunday services, we're holding a series of discussions on Thursday evenings at 7.30pm, for anyone who would like to share their ideas and/or learn from each other. These will be held at the back of Church and include drinks and nibbles.

SERVICES:

Sunday July 23rd

The 10am service includes the sacrament of anointing for healing.

Discussion Groups, in Church, Thursdays, 7.30pm:

- 1. 'An initiation rite for a secret club'?
What is Baptism and who is it for?
Judith Mitchell will lead this session on July 13th.
- 2. 'A naïve false hope for desperate people? What does it mean to be anointed?'
Adrian Esdaile will lead this session on July 20th.
- 3. 'A cynical way of getting away with it?' –
What is the point of reconciliation?
Sarah Lutton will lead this session on July 27th.
- 4. 'A tax dodge? A great excuse for a party'? –
Why get married?
Nick Parish will lead this session on August 3rd.

Choir trip to Portsmouth Cathedral 22nd and 23 July

Every year the choir enjoys a visit to a regional cathedral. In the recent past, we've sung at Winchester, Chichester, Southwark, Rochester, Chelmsford and Guildford cathedrals. This year we're heading to the coast to sing in Portsmouth cathedral. The service times in Portsmouth are as follows:

Sat 22nd July

5.45pm Choral Evensong (Men's voices)

Sun 23rd July

11.00am Sung Eucharist (Full choir)

5.45pm Choral Evensong (Full choir)

You're very welcome to attend any of these services in Portsmouth; or if you'd prefer to remain in-land, we'll be singing much of the music in Epsom next weekend at the following times:

Sat 15th July at 5.30pm at St Martin's (Please note this extra service!)

Choral Evensong sung by the men's voices

Preces and responses – Plainsong

Psalm 63

Evening Service in Bb – C S Lang

Mine eyes for beauty pine – Herbert Howells

Sun 16th July at St Martin's

10.00 Sung Eucharist

Missa Brevis – Richard Dacey

Love is the key – Helen Williams

6.30pm Choral Evensong

Preces and responses – Iain Macfarlane

Psalm 67

Evensong Service in D – George Dyson

Angel voices ever singing – Felton Rapley

Decluttering St Martin's – Update

As you know from last week's newsletter, we have now received permission from the diocese for the removal of furniture and other redundant items from St Martin's. Betchworth Church Antiques are purchasing the items and they are collecting them on Monday (10th July). As required by the diocese, we will have taken photographs of any inscriptions/dedications.

Eco Fair 2023 review

The sky was grey, and then it rained, and then the wind blew – and then the sun came out, meaning that the effort (thanks, Rob J) to close the road/car park in front of church was well worth it! People sat around eating 'fast' food from the visiting vegan food van and cakes (thank you, Maureen and crew) from inside, and people chalked eco messages pictures on the ground. Inside were more stalls from the council, local volunteer groups and national organisations offering informative conversations and opportunities to get involved; I know some people who have found a new niche, and I hope and pray that many seeds were sown, not least by the 3rd Epsom Scout group, who offered a make-a-seed-pot-out-of-a-toilet-roll experience. Thanks to all of you who turned up to be the friendly face of St Martin's Church. When/if we hold another eco event, what will the church offer? Speak to me now with your inspiration.... Not only about this, but how as a church, and as individuals within the church, we can follow the Church of England's Fifth Mark of Mission, our calling to help all creation flourish.

Flowers in Church

As part of our worship and celebration of life and nature, we aim to have fresh flowers in St Martin's most weeks (except Lent, Advent and August).

As there are now fewer people available to make the beautiful floral arrangements that we have been used to, we are changing the way in which we provide flowers in church. We will continue to provide floral arrangements for the festivals (Christmas, Easter, Harvest and Remembrance).

We are inviting all members of the church to consider giving the flowers, perhaps in memory of a loved one or to celebrate a special occasion.

You are invited to donate flowers or contribute towards the cost of flowers.

If you would like to contribute towards the cost of flowers, then the recommended donation is £15. Please use the card reader in church to make your payment. If you pay for the flowers, then one of the members of the flower team will purchase and arrange them for you.

If you would prefer to provide flowers, from your garden, allotment or the shop, then please bring them to church on Friday morning. One of the flower team will be available to help you arrange the flowers.

You can find the sign-up sheet at the back of church on the noticeboard, nearest to the glass room.

Please put your name against the week that you would like to pay for or provide the flowers.

Many thanks
Yvonne Parish

Summer Tea

The regular monthly Beacon Teas were discontinued because of waning support, but we are going to have occasional teas three times a year: one close to Easter, one in the summer and one at Christmas. The first of these, our Summer Tea, will take place on Sunday 9 July from 3.00pm – 4.30pm in the Church. There will be scones, jam and cream plus cake and sandwiches. All are welcome. Please come!

MISSION OF THE MONTH – JULY

ABROAD and HOME MISSION

The Bible Society

This Charity works on a Global Mission (over 200 countries) to bring the Bible to life for every man, woman and child, believing that when people engage with the Bible, lives can change – for good. It translates and distributes Bibles around the world so that people can experience the Bible in their heart language. It also works against a backdrop of indifference in the UK to help Adults and Children recognise the value of the Bible.

Mission to Seafarers

St Martin's Church have donated to the Mission to Seafarers this year. For more than 150 years the Mission to Seafarers have provided compassion, care and support to Seafarers around the world, when they need it most. Collectively, there are an estimated 1.89 million seafarers across the world. These men and women of all nationalities spend up to nine months at sea, far from families, friends and loved ones.
