6.30pm Second Thoughts - 'Paul in Corinth'

Andris and Ruta Abakuks

Andris and Rūta, while on holiday in Greece last summer, visited the archaeological site of ancient Corinth, where the apostle Paul stayed for a couple of years during his second missionary journey and where he returned on his third missionary journey.

The presentation is a continuation of a previous presentation, on Paul in Athens. We shall look at pictures from the archaeological site, and how these illustrate what is related in the Book of Acts, and the connections to some of Paul's letters and to other historical evidence.

Andris and Rūta are active in the Latvian Lutheran Church in Great Britain. Andris also has permission to officiate in the Church of England Diocese of Guildford. He regularly takes services at St. Martin's and St. Stephen's.

Refreshments available from 5.45pm.

Tuesday 13th February

4.00pm Take Time To Talk – Shrove Tuesday, Ash

Wednesday and Lent

(tea from 3.45pm in the Headley room)

Mardi Gras means 'Fat Tuesday' so expect some delicious things to eat. It's carnival time. 'Carnival' means "Goodbye to meat" It's the last day before the Lent fast starts, so the last stocks of meat, cheese and eggs need to be eaten up. Is today about more than just pancakes? Do you plan to fast in Lent? What will you actually do?

Following a short introduction to the topic, we will reflect, talk, and listen, remembering that in this sort of exploration, questions are more important than answers.

Everyone is welcome to come along - just turn up. If you want to know more, please ask me.

PRAYING FOR OUR CHURCH AND OUR COMMUNITY

Prayer is the foundation of God's kingdom and one of the most powerful tools we have. It underpins everything we do. We can work as hard as we are able, generating lots of activity and exerting much effort in our discipleship and mission, but without prayer much is in vain. The gift of prayer is that all of us, however limited we may be physically, or in the time we have available, can play our part.

FEBRUARY MISSION FOCUS

HOME MISSION

My-TIME - Young Carers in Epsom and Ewell

Young Carers are often forgotten people as they are not obvious in Society. They can be anyone, from a very young age who supports someone in their own family in multiple roles. In their isolated situations they need support in order to cope.

My Time for Young Carers is a charity-relying on enough volunteers to provide activities outside of the home, to mix with others and to take part in fun activities. It is for young Carers between the ages of 7—16 who live locally.

ABROAD MISSION

The Bible Society

The Society is working to circulate the Scriptures across the world, in the church and through the culture. The strategy of the Bible Society centres on Bible availability, accessibility and credibility- what it calls the 'lifecycle' of the Bible.

Go green for Lent. The weeks leading up to Easter are a time for self reflection, repentance and emulating Jesus' obedience to the Father. Is there something you'd like to give up or take up during Lent that will enable you to reflect on God, contribute to our planet's well-being and enhance others' lives through sustainable, ecofriendly living? Explore some of these changes at arocha.org.uk/go-greenfor-lent/

OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE

Following the annual meeting in May, we shall need a new Churchwarden (to replace David) and a new adult safeguarding officer (to replace Howard). Please prayerfully consider if these are roles that you might be called to.

There are also many other roles, practical and administrative, that keep our Church community going, so if you feel you can be part of that, then do talk to me about what you could offer.
Thank you. Nick Parish

A prayer for service:

Jesus, fill me with the love and gratitude for Your church. Cause this gratitude that You're working within me to produce an intentional investment of prayer and time into Your people. May love for the church produce servanthood among Your people. Amen.

STUDY/ DISCIPLESHIP

Explore the meaning of life together

Being With: a course exploring Christian faith and life, developed by St Martin-in-the-Fields (being-with.org).

If you are looking for an opportunity to discover more about Christianity – or to take another look, having been away for a while – you may like to join a group starting in March 2024 called Being With. This offers a chance to explore what Christianity is really about over ten sessions in a respectful and thoughtful setting. No special knowledge or religious language needed. Just what you have learned in life so far.

Being With is about sharing stories about our lives and hearing the stories of others. These stories are the small things that mean a lot to us and they can also be the most challenging and life-changing moments of our lives. Being With invites you to discover faith in the context of discovering friendship.

Starts Tuesday 12 March 7.30 – 9 pm at St Martin’s Church.

Ten sessions: 12, 19, 26 March. 2, 16, 30 April. 7, 14, 21, 28 May.

Contact revjudith@stmartinsepsom.org for more details.

The Power of Poetry: February

This is a new innovation for the Newsletter: it was suggested that I should provide a poem for it fairly regularly, and I shall try to provide one each month – which I hope will be manageable. I feel that the poem should be relevant (-ish) to Christianity, the church, or at least the season, e.g. a poem about spring in, well, spring; a war poem in November. (If anyone would like to submit a poem with a brief commentary, to take up no more than two pages of the Newsletter, do get in touch.) Some will be quite serious, but I hope to add a few lighter ones. This offering is a poem by the 17th century priest and poet George Herbert, Love (III), and is one of his more well-known ones.

*Love bade me welcome; yet my soul drew back,
Guilty of dust and sin.
But quick-eyed love, observing me grow slack
From my first entrance in,
Drew nearer to me, sweetly questioning
If I lacked anything.*

*“A guest”, I answered, “worthy to be here”:
Love said, “You shall be he.”
“I, the unkind, ungrateful? Ah, my dear,
I cannot look on thee.”
Love took my hand, and smiling did reply,*

“Who made the eyes but I?”

*“Truth Lord, but I have marred them: let my shame
Go where it doth deserve.”*

“And know you not,” says love, “who bore the blame?”

“My dear, then I will serve.”

“You must sit down,” says love, “and taste my meat”.

So I did sit and eat.

This poem of just three verses encapsulates the nub of what Christian belief means. ‘Love’, we realise, is God, but by using ‘Love’ Herbert demonstrates that love is at the heart of the message of the Bible, especially the New Testament, and that God loves us and forgives us all our wrongdoings. The guest feels he is unworthy to enter the house of God and is ‘guilty of dust and sin’, as are we all, ‘dust’ leading us back to the fall of Adam in Genesis (“dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return”). In Genesis again, there is an allusion to God’s Creation (‘who made the eyes but I?’). Then we come to Christ’s redemption of us (‘.... know you not.... who bore the blame?’).

Finally, in the last line (‘So I did sit and eat’) we are reminded of the heavenly banquet we are promised in Luke chapter 12, and also the sacrament of the Eucharist which we celebrate regularly. The poem is a masterpiece, using simple, mainly short, words and copies the rhythms of everyday speech. I hope you enjoy it and are tempted to read more of George Herbert’s work and about his life. [There is an excellent biography about him called Music at Midnight by John Drury, probably out of print, but second-hand copies are available.]
