CONFIRMATION SERVICE

Bishop Paul is visiting us on Sunday July 19th. He's coming in the afternoon to dedicate our new solar panels (on the roof of St Martin's), share in a parish tea and, at 6.30pm, lead a service that will include first communion for some of our children and confirmation for young people and adults. If you have never been confirmed (or even baptised) and would like to make these public declarations of faith and discipleship, please let one of the clergy know. There will be (for adults) a short preparation course in the run up to the service.

Icons

Following the session with the Dean of Guildford on Icons, I have a set of the photographs if anyone would like to see them or make copies. In due course I may have a copy of what he had to say.

Message from Joan Gabbett's grandchildren

On 28 June 2026, we're running the Long Course Weekend Marathon to honour our amazing mum, Anne Field, who we lost to cancer exactly one year ago at just 54.

Our Mum lived life to the fullest and brought joy to everyone. To carry on her spirit, we're tackling this tough, hilly course to raise vital funds for Cancer Research UK, hoping to spare other families this heartbreak.

Any donation or share means the world to us. Thank you for helping us honour her. ❤️

Nature conservation and local government reform

We're all aware of the great efforts at St Martin's under the Eco Church initiative, but an army of volunteers is also working in the wider community to care for Epsom's extraordinarily rich green spaces and wildlife. This work now faces uncertain times due to the upheaval of local government reform. The Epsom and Ewell Times, our local news website, has recently reported on the drive to ensure nature isn't forgotten when the borough is abolished next year. To read the article please click

Centering Prayer: Every other Tuesday, 4pm in Church (Tea & biscuits from 3.45pm)

"Be still and know that I am God" Psalms 46:10. A small group of us meet to pray together in silence. We begin with something to reflect on - perhaps a biblical passage or Psalm. After our 20 minutes of silence, we might share something that we have noticed during our time together.

Contemplative Prayer: 1st Tuesday of each month, 11am In the Lady Chapel, St Martin's

A time for focussing on God's presence and allowing oneself to be filled with God's grace. It's a time of stillness and quietness. We listen to the words of God or of Jesus in contemplation.

There is an additional zoom Contemplative Prayer session on the 3rd Thursday of each month at 8pm. Find us using the same Zoom details cited above for Evening Prayer.

THE POWER OF POETRY – MAY

Spring is now well sprung. How we were looking forward to it and how well rewarded we have been. The days lengthened and the extra light led us to the extraordinary light of the resurrection. All brought hope for us and for everyone for new life came into the world. Everywhere we have seen buds and blossom bursting forth with fresh leaves unfurling, clean green against the blue sky. In our ears the cheeping of chickens and the ducklings and goslings on our waters and birdsong too. Sunday May 3rd is International Dawn Chorus Day. Will you have open windows at 4.30am or be out on the downs, or another favourite place? Later or maybe in the days before Maypoles will be out and children and the Morris dancing everywhere. A world full of innocence indeed as the poet Gerard Manley Hopkins wrote in his poem about Spring.

Spring

*Nothing is so beautiful as spring —
When weeds, in wheels, shoot long and lovely and lush;
Thrush's eggs look little low heavens, and thrush
Through the echoing timber does so rinse and wring
The ear, it strikes like lightnings to hear him sing;
The glassy peartree leaves and blooms, they brush
The descending blue; that blue is all in a rush
With richness; the racing lambs too have fair their fling.*

*What is all this juice and all this joy?
A strain of the earth's sweet being in the beginning
In Eden garden. — Have, get, before it cloy,
Before it cloud, Christ, lord, and sour with sinning,
Innocent mind and Mayday in girl and boy,
Most, O maid's child, thy choice and worthy the winning.*

At the age of 13 I was introduced to his work by my English master, one of those outstanding teachers who fills you with a love of the subject that never leaves you. Hopkins had a great feeling for words and was not only inventive in his combining of them he was also the father of a new rhythm in poetry not just Sprung Rhythm but a style in which the natural strong beat of the freer English verse was reinforced by alliteration, assonance, internal rhyme and half rhyme.

He was a Jesuit priest with a wide range of interests His mystical insight is combined with deep humanity and thoughts of the Creator are quickly brought to the fore as he contemplates everything he sees around him, people, places and events.

In the poem I have chosen Hopkins' joy is evident, as is his skill with that rhythm driving the poem forward as he writes of the abundant life, a foretaste of that promised.

Nothing is so beautiful as Spring. I agree. Nancy and I had a terrific experience this year as it all unfolded so rapidly when we arrived in the USA. One day trees were barren and earth rather bare. By the end of the week it was transformed with buds and blossom. And of course there were weeds – just flowers in the wrong place. I have never dared plant a bed of dandelions! And the skies were so blue.

The glory of nature can really be transporting. Even if you feel you have no time to stand and stare it will bring you up short. This can be a truly religious experience whether you think of God or not, making you wonder what is beyond. While it is not unusual to be appreciative of beauty in the natural world people are at times deeply moved – awestruck. They may even be conscious of a presence near or around them, and a reassuring one at that, akin to our feeling that God is in heaven and all is right with the world (as is said directly in Robert Browning's poem Pippa Passes) or the feeling of Mother Julian that all will be well and all manner of thing shall be well. We tend to keep quiet about these mystical experiences whatever triggers them but they should be told and shared so the whole church might benefit. As J V Taylor the theologian said (who was not so long ago Bishop of Winchester) these moments too are sacraments, effective means of grace. Nature is here adding depth to the knowledge we already have of God from Scripture and our Prayer book, rather than presenting a theology of its own.

Hopkins understands that all this is precarious and ends with that appeal that we may catch it before it is gone, for this is the best of the world to which Jesus, the maid's Child chose to come to save.

Climate Change –the trouble with ‘Net-Zero’

Wednesday 24th June 2026 7.30pm,

Epsom Methodist Church

Ashley Road KT18 5AQ

Refreshments served before event

John Mackintosh came to talk to us 3 years ago about Climate Change, and a lot has happened since that time. Come back and listen to him talking about some of the most recent hot topics. These will include:

- how are we doing with tackling climate change, both in the UK and the rest of the world?
- where are we with renewables and electric vehicles?
- what’s the reality of more drilling for oil and gas?
- and what does the future hold?

John is a Sustainability Consultant at GreenGoals Consulting and is an expert in his field.

The Eco church group at Epsom Methodist Church would like to invite you to this event.

The Souls of the HORTON 9000 and the EPSOM CLUSTER are calling for their stories to be told ... will we listen?

Join us for a powerful evening of history and human connection as two eminent experts bring together archives, photography, and contemporary art, giving voice to thousands of souls from Surrey's hidden psychiatric hospitals in a fundraiser for the Grange Centre, Bookham.

This is more than a talk.

It's an encounter with lives once overlooked —
and a chance to see them anew.

Grange
at Bookham

Julian Pooley (Surrey History Centre) explores the internationally significant archives of Surrey's psychiatric hospitals through personal case notes and rare photographic portraits

- Why did Surrey become home to so many of these institutions?
- How were their records rescued when the hospitals closed?
- How do these stories shape our understanding today?

Julian's work underpins the Us & Them Project —created with The Freewheelers Theatre Company, Leatherhead, pairing contemporary participants with historic patients. Photographer Emma Brown's striking portraits echo the historic wet plate collodion originals of the 1850s.

Professor Alana Harris (King's College London) presents Synthetic Weaves—a collaboration with artist Dr Eric Fong, dressmaker Valerie Moon, and members of The Grange Centre. The molecular structures of modern pharmaceuticals and the lace collars made and worn by women in the asylums have inspired reinterpretations by clients at the Grange Centre to make artwork which restores identity, dignity and voice to the forgotten.

All proceeds support the vital work of the Grange Centre, empowering adults with learning disabilities to lead independent and fulfilling lives.
